

Rule of Law Collaborative
School of Law
Women's and Gender Studies Program
Dr. Mary Baskin Waters Annual Lecture Series

Women as Agents of Change in Rule of Law

Keynote

Wednesday, Feb. 21
5:30 - 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Mamphela Ramphele

is an anti-apartheid activist, author, politician, academic, doctor, and businesswoman.

She will be joined by William Hubbard, USC Board of Trustees; partner, Nelson Mullins.

Symposium

Thursday, Feb. 22
9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Across the globe, women increasingly serve as crucial change agents in rule of law. This symposium will bring together leaders from various countries, including the United States, to examine strategies for change on human rights education, access to justice, good governance, and justice sector leadership.

February

21-22

Karen J. Williams Courtroom
USC School of Law
1525 Senate Street
Columbia, SC

6.5 CLE Credits

Free and open to the public.

www.rolcsc.org

Register at [rolagentsofchange.

eventbrite.com](http://rolagentsofchange.eventbrite.com)

UNIVERSITY OF
SOUTH CAROLINA